- (c) with immediate effect if Quilter Cheviot or the Introducer ceases to be authorised by the FCA or the relevant National Regulator or, if the Introducer is an appointed representative (as defined in the FCA Rules), its principal ceases to be authorised by the FCA or no longer has an agreement with us;
- (d) with immediate effect if Quilter Cheviot no longer provides services to any Clients the Introducer has Referred;
- (e) with immediate effect if the other party is unable to pay its debts as they fall due or is to be wound up, an administrator, administrative receiver, receiver, liquidator or similar officer is to be appointed in respect of the other party, the other party is to cease to carry on all or substantially the whole of its business or the other party is incorporated in Jersey or has assets situated in Jersey and is declared “bankrupt” within the meaning of Article 8 of the Interpretation (Jersey) Law 1954; or
- (f) (where applicable) with immediate effect if the Introducer ceases to be the agent of a Client (as determined by Quilter Cheviot in its absolute discretion) in respect of that Client only.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

- 15.1 Quilter Cheviot may assign, transfer, subcontract or delegate its rights and obligations under the Agreement to its affiliated companies, successors or anyone we transfer our business to provided that the Introducer is given reasonable prior written notice of any such assignment, transfer, subcontracting or delegation. The Introducer may not assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, subcontract, delegate, declare a trust over or deal in any other manner with any of its rights and obligations under the Agreement.
- 15.2 Unless expressly stated otherwise, a person who is not a party to the Agreement cannot enforce any term of it (whether under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 or otherwise).
- 15.3 Quilter Cheviot is not obliged to accept any Prospective Clients, provide any Service to a Client or agree to novate, transfer or assign any rights or obligations.
- 15.4 Quilter Cheviot shall not give, and shall not be deemed to have given, legal or tax advice to the Introducer or any Clients it has Referred. Subject to clause 15.9, Quilter Cheviot and its officers, employees and agents shall not be liable for any direct or indirect, punitive, incidental, special or consequential losses or damages,

- 15.6 Quilter Cheviot may change the Agreement by sending the Introducer a written notice describing the relevant changes. Such changes shall apply from the date given in the notice and, unless we say differently, the Introducer will be given at least 30 days’ notice before they take effect. If the Introducer does not accept the change(s), it may end the Agreement by giving us at least 14 days’ written notice. No changes to the Agreement will affect any legal rights or responsibilities which may have already arisen.
- 15.7 No failure or delay by a party to exercise any right or remedy provided under the Agreement or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.
- 15.8 If any court or competent authority finds that any provision of the Agreement (or part of any provision) is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted, apply with the minimum modification necessary to make it legal, valid and enforceable, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions shall not be affected.
- 15.9 Nothing in the Agreement shall limit or exclude: (1) any liability for fraud, (2) any liability which cannot be limited or excluded under English law; or (3) any duties or liabilities imposed upon Quilter Cheviot or the Introducer under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or any other applicable regulatory system.

- 15.11 If the Introducer is established in South Africa, the provisions of Schedule 2 shall apply.

SCHEDULE 1: THIRD PARTY ANTI-BRIBERY/CORRUPTION AND FACILITATION OF TAX EVASION STANDARD

1. OBJECTIVES

The principle objective of this Standard is to ensure that those third parties with whom Quilter Cheviot has a business relationship comply with anti-bribery, anti-corruption and facilitation of tax evasion legislation in the UK and in the other jurisdictions where Quilter Cheviot operates. It is assumed that most third parties will be regulated incorporated or unincorporated entities who are subject to the provisions of the Bribery Act 2010, Criminal Finances Act 2017, the Corruption (Jersey) Law 2006 or other equivalent applicable law or regulation.

There may be differences to the requirements in this Standard for third parties who are individual sole traders. In this event, the requirements relating to processes and controls will be less stringent unless the sole trader appoints another third party to assist in the provision of services for Quilter Cheviot.

Quilter Cheviot has no tolerance for breaches of bribery and corruption or facilitation of tax evasion legislation and/or regulation by any third parties with whom it enters into business relationships.

Where the third party is located outside the UK, and local legislation and regulatory requirements exceed the minimum standards set out in this Standard, the third party must comply with those higher standards.

2. SUMMARY OF QUILTER CHEVIOT'S ANTI-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION AND FACILITATION OF TAX EVASION STANDARD

Quilter Cheviot is committed to integrity and high ethical standards in the conduct of its business and expects the same of all persons employed or otherwise engaged to provide services on its behalf.

Gifts by or to Quilter Cheviot employees are subject to a limit of £20 per person, and must be disclosed to and approved by the firm. Entertainment to or from Quilter Cheviot employees is limited in value and frequency and must be disclosed to and approved by the firm. Gifts and entertainment must be for bona fide business purposes only, reasonable in scale and frequency, proportionate to the nature of the relationship and the status of the invitees, and transparent.

Charitable contributions made by Quilter Cheviot are subject to strict criteria and a due diligence process. They must be reviewed and approved before any remittance is made. Quilter Cheviot does not make contributions to, or use its resources to support, any political parties, candidates or causes. Any lobbying activity is carried out through the firm's trade body.

Third parties must be pre-cleared before any understanding with a third party is agreed. Clearance is not granted until a due diligence process and contractual arrangements (including anti-bribery and corruption and facilitation of tax evasion provisions) have been completed.

All candidates for employment or work experience with Quilter Cheviot are subject to a standard recruitment process and all applications are treated solely on their merits. Where a link between a candidate and a Client, third party or public official is identified, the appointment must be reviewed and signed off by senior management.

Quilter Cheviot does not permit the making of facilitation payments in the conduct of its business activities. Where payments are made under severe duress, details must be reported as soon as possible to the firm.

The procurement of goods and services for the firm must be managed in accordance with the firm's Procurement Principles which promote the transparent and fair selection of vendors, and require a due diligence process and anti-bribery and corruption and facilitation of tax evasion contractual provisions.

Quilter Cheviot has no tolerance for the dishonest act of facilitating domestic or foreign tax evasion by employees or other associated persons who are acting for Quilter Cheviot or on its behalf. Quilter Cheviot is committed to maintaining a risk-based and proportionate programme of controls to prevent facilitation of tax evasion by it or its associated persons. Such programme includes business risk assessment, training, reporting concerns, employee vetting and due diligence on third party relationships and procurement/contract management procedures.

Breaches of this Standard may result in the dismissal of an employee and the termination of a business relationship with a third party engaged to provide goods or services for Quilter Cheviot.

3. DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Standard:

Associated Person is defined as "any legal or natural person who provides services for or on behalf of Quilter Cheviot".

Bribery is defined as "an offer or receipt of any gift, loan, fee, reward, or other advantage to or from any person as an inducement to do something which is dishonest, illegal or a breach of trust".

Corruption is defined as "illegal or dishonest behaviour typically involving bribery by those in positions of power".

Facilitation is defined as "knowingly and dishonestly encouraging or assisting in the commission of a tax evasion offence". It may be committed by positive action, failure to act when required to do so or wilful blindness.

Tax Evasion is defined as "any form of fraudulent conduct which seeks to divert money from the public revenue depriving it of money to which it is entitled".

Third party is defined as "a third party who:

- a) will assist Quilter Cheviot in obtaining or retaining business, such as a consultant, finder, or other business introducer; or
- b) will assist Quilter Cheviot in conducting business, such as a consultant, agent, joint venture partner or other business Introducer; and
- i) is a government official/government entity; or

- ii) may have interactions with government officials on behalf of Quilter Cheviot.

4. PRINCIPAL PROHIBITION

The third party, and anyone employed or engaged (directly or indirectly) by the third party to act for or on behalf of Quilter Cheviot must not:

- offer, promise, give, or authorise others to give anything of value, either directly or indirectly, to any party in order to influence official action, to improperly obtain or retain business or otherwise to gain an improper business advantage;
- receive or agree to receive anything of value that results, or may result, in the improper performance of your duties as an agent of Quilter Cheviot;
- Facilitate or assist the evasion of any UK or foreign tax; or
- do anything to circumvent controls in place to ensure compliance with this Standard.

5. REQUIRED PROCEDURES

In order to comply with legislation, Quilter Cheviot's risk based approach to managing bribery and facilitation of tax evasion risks to its business is informed by the six principles set out in the UK Ministry of Justice Guidance under s9 Bribery Act 2010 and the Criminal Finance Act 2017.

The third party must ensure that it operates procedures (including controls, processes and operations) designed to minimise and manage the risks of bribery and the facilitation of tax evasion, which are:

- proportionate to the bribery and facilitation of tax evasion risk (as identified in an annual risk assessment exercise undertaken by the third party);
- appropriate and relevant for the type of business;
- communicated to relevant parties (internal and external), including Quilter Cheviot;
- documented in a clear and understandable manner and accessible to all relevant persons; and
- reviewed regularly to ensure they remain up to date and are consistent with current good practice.

A third party who is an individual or sole trader must be able to demonstrate to Quilter Cheviot that he/she understands the bribery and facilitation of tax evasion risks applying to the sector in which they are providing services to, for or on behalf of Quilter Cheviot, and that they operate in a manner that minimises the risk of bribery, corrupt practices or the facilitation of tax evasion occurring in connection with the services provided to, for or on behalf of Quilter Cheviot.

However, where any part of the services provided to, for or on behalf of Quilter Cheviot are being performed by a third party, whether employee, agent or sub-contractor, the third party will be expected to follow the more detailed procedural requirements set out in this Standard.

6. DUE DILIGENCE

Due diligence is necessary to identify and mitigate the risk that a bribe is offered in order to obtain or retain business relating to Quilter Cheviot, or to conduct business on behalf of Quilter Cheviot. Similarly that an associated person might facilitate a UK or foreign tax evasion offence.

The third party must complete risk-based due diligence on persons (including individuals and incorporated or unincorporated bodies) who will perform services or provide goods for or on behalf of either the third party or Quilter Cheviot.

In determining whether a person is acting for or on behalf of Quilter Cheviot, the third party must consider the nature of the activity being undertaken. As a minimum, an agent, subsidiary or any other person obtaining, retaining or conducting business or providing services on behalf of Quilter Cheviot must be subject to due diligence.

The third party must notify Quilter Cheviot immediately in the event that a person acting on its or Quilter Cheviot's behalf is suspected or convicted of bribery, corrupt practices or facilitating tax evasion.

The third party will assess the need for, and extent of, ongoing due diligence to identify and mitigate bribery and facilitation of tax evasion risks arising from its employees and agents (where relevant) as part of its annual risk assessment exercise.

7. MONITORING AND REVIEW

The third party must ensure that arrangements are in place to monitor regularly (at least annually) the continued adequacy and effectiveness of its processes, systems and controls in order to assess compliance with the requirements of this Standard.

Where deficiencies are identified, third parties must resolve them without delay, escalate them to Quilter Cheviot where appropriate, and monitor thereafter to identify and prevent any recurrence.

The third party must ensure that where external persons perform services on behalf of Quilter Cheviot, these are included in their oversight, monitoring and review programmes.

8. GIFTS, ENTERTAINMENT AND HOSPITALITY

The third party must:

- include in its annual risk assessment the level of controls necessary to counter the bribery risks associated with the offering and receiving of gifts, entertainment and hospitality; and
- include in this assessment employees or any other persons acting on behalf of Quilter Cheviot.

The third party is prohibited from offering, either personally or on behalf of Quilter Cheviot, any gifts, entertainment or hospitality intended to influence a decision-maker, vendor or customer unduly in order to gain or retain business on behalf of Quilter Cheviot.

9. CHARITABLE AND POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS

The third party is prohibited from making any charitable or political contribution on behalf of Quilter Cheviot.

10. FACILITATION PAYMENTS

Facilitation payments are illegal under UK law. A facilitation payment is small unofficial payment made to secure or expedite the performance of a routine or necessary action to which the payer has a legal or other entitlement. Examples of such actions might include issuing permits or licences, immigration controls, customs clearances, police protection costs, mail delivery, and telephone services. Also covered are demands for small unofficial payments, usually by public officials, in relation to an alleged breach of the law, such as a road traffic violation.

Facilitation payments which relate in any way to the services provided to, for or on behalf of Quilter Cheviot are prohibited by this Standard. In exceptional cases of duress (but only where there is a material threat to life, limb or liberty), such payments may have to be made. Details of any such payment must be given to Quilter Cheviot immediately.

The third party must ensure that:

- the risk of facilitation payments being requested which relate in any way to the services provided to, for or on behalf of Quilter Cheviot are considered in their annual risk assessment;
- all requests for such payments are reported immediately to Quilter Cheviot;
- suitable risk mitigation and training procedures are in place where there is a likelihood that facilitation payments will be requested; and
- all those acting on behalf of Quilter Cheviot are aware of their responsibilities in relation to facilitation payments even if requests are declined or refused.

11. REPORTING

The third party must ensure that:

- any cases of bribery, corruption or the facilitation of tax evasion committed in connection with the services provided to, for or on behalf of Quilter Cheviot are reported to Quilter Cheviot (Compliance Department at 0207 150 4000 or compliance@quiltercheviot.com);
- processes are in place to report where bribes, corrupt payments or the facilitation of tax evasion are known or suspected to have occurred; and
- all employees, agents and sub-contractors are aware of the appropriate routes to report instances of suspected or attempted bribery, corruption or the facilitation of tax evasion.

12. RECORD KEEPING

The third party must retain all records (including training records) relating to compliance with this Standard, which may be paper or electronic, for a period of 6 years. This includes all significant decisions relating to the application of this Standard, the rationale for which should be documented.

All documentation retained must be legible, auditable and easily retrievable. Quilter Cheviot reserves the right to:

- a) examine such records upon written request; and
- b) visit, either itself or through its auditors, the third party's premises upon reasonable written notice during standard working hours to review and assess these records.

SCHEDULE 2: SOUTH AFRICAN INTRODUCERS

2. Unless agreed otherwise in writing, Quilter Cheviot shall pay any remuneration (in line with clause 10) in South African Rand and in accordance with the South African Exchange Control Regulations of 1961, published under the Currency and Exchanges Act 1933.
